Correspondence Trail Creek Police Department received a letter from the Broadview Police Department; commending Trail Creek Police Department for their assistance during a police matter. Marshal Dick read letter aloud.

Also, Ms. Denham; Clerk Treasurer read aloud a letter received from a concerned resident regarding contractors needing to have the proper signage on their vehicles. Mr. Herrbach, Town Attorney stated that we should have an ordinance on this.

Department Reports:

MS4: Not in attendance

Attorney: Bill Herrbach, Town Attorney in attendance; reported on the Flood Insurance Program; it was suggested that a letter should be sent out from the Town Hall to those residents that could be affected with an increase in insurance costs due to the new flood plain maps. Letters will be sent to all of those residents on Johnson Road, Cricket and Old Mill Road.

Update on 235 Harding, this property according the Bill Herrbach is set to go up for tax sale in the fall of 2015. Bill also reported that 110 Harding is secure and at this time there are no safety violations. The property located at 1910 East Coolspring; according to the town attorney the home is still being mortgaged; and therefore the town will still pursue payment on the refuse liens.

Mr. Warren Schacht, Council President asked Mr. Thomas, Building Inspector if the house at 1910 E. Cool spring had any safety issues. Mr. Thomas responded by saying the back of the property could use some clean up, but other than that the property appears to be secure.
